

Rheumatism Relief--25c.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), Are Helping Thousands Who Tried Expensive Things Without Result. It's Guaranteed.

There are three vital processes of human existence—the digestion of food, the extraction of nourishment from it and the elimination of waste. Poor digestion and assimilation means failure to derive full nourishment from food and that in turn often means impoverished blood, weakness, anemia, etc. Poor elimination means an accumulation of waste matter which poisons the body, lowers vitality, decreases the power of resistance to disease and leads to the development of many serious ills.

Rheumatism—due to some interference with the process of elimination, failure to get rid of certain body poisons—cannot be expected to yield to any medicine that fails to correct the condition responsible for it. Could any reasonable person expect to rid himself of rheumatic pain as long as rheumatic poison is allowed to remain in the body?

Think of this. It explains the success of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) in so many cases where other medicines have failed. Thousands are using NR Tablets every day and getting relief. Why pay five or ten times as much for uncertain things? A box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), containing enough to last ten to fifteen days—must help you. Must give you prompt relief and satisfactory benefit or cost you nothing.

Nature's Remedy is not only for the relief of rheumatism, but it improves digestion, tones the liver, regulates kidney and bowel action, improves the blood and cleanses the system. You've tried the expensive medicines and doctors, now make the real test. You get your money back. Just try it. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

Jo Anderson, Druggist, 8th & Market Sts.

Live & Let Live Drug Co., 7th & Market Sts.

Price-Miller Drug Co., Main & Ross-ville Ave.

Read House Drug Store, 5th & Chestnut Sts.

Strong Bros., Druggists, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) Get a Tomorrow Feel Right 25c Box

—(Adv.)

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of GARDOL White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of GARDOL White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmful!

GARDOL White is sold by druggists and dealers.

—(Adv.)

GREAT NORTHERN HOTEL—CHICAGO

Jackson Blvd. Dearborn and Quincy Streets Opposite Post Office

400 Rooms European Plan Fireproof

For completeness of service, convenience of location and moderation in charges, Great Northern Hotel ranks high in the estimation of all who know Chicago.

RATES PER DAY

Single detached bath, $1.50 & $2.50 private $2.50 to $5

Two persons $3 to $6

JOHN C. O'NEILL, Manager

—(Adv.)

WOULD NEVER GET WELL, HE THOUGHT

Nashville Man Could Only Walk Short Distance Without Resting.

WORKS ALL RIGHT NOW

Love Says He Hasn't Had a Touch of Asthma Since Taking Lung-Vita.

"I have been troubled with Asthma for two years and have had doctors and taken medicine, and I also tried different remedies that were recommended, without getting any relief," says Mr. Alexander Love, of 2012 Fifteenth Ave., Nashville, Tenn.

"I would have very hard coughing and smothering spells at different times, and I could walk only a short distance without resting because of shortness of breath. I began to feel weary about myself, for I had about come to the conclusion that I would never get well. I saw in the papers that Lung-Vita was a fine medicine for this trouble and bought a bottle. I have taken six small bottles of Lung-Vita to date and can say it has cured me entirely. I commenced to take the medicine last spring and have not had a touch of asthma since. I can now do as much work as anyone my age can do."

Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers. —(Adv.)

THREE BIG PATCHES OF OIL TOLD TRAGIC STORY

Officials Confident One German Sub Operating Off Atlantic Coast Has Been Sunk.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Naval officials today felt reasonably confident that one of the German submarines that have been harassing the Atlantic coast—the one which sunk the Hatteras lightship—either has been sunk or badly damaged. They based this belief on the appearance of three big patches of oil on the surface of the water after a destroyer which had been searching for the submarine dropped a depth bomb over the spot where it was seen to submerge. However, in the absence of positive evidence, no official claim will be made that the submarine was destroyed.

The navy department also was investigating the sinking of six men at Smith's Island, off the mouth of Cape Fear river, near the entrance to the channel at Wilmington, N. C. This was the first evidence that the submarine had attempted any movement against men on shore. The gas had the effect of mustard gas, according to the official report, and was effective for forty minutes. The report that it had been set off gave rise to rumors of more sensational exploits, but these were not borne out by the facts.

As a matter of fact the submarines on this side, in fact, nearly all of the German underwater craft, will hardly attempt any exploit which would bring them into the visibility of destroyers or submarine chasers. It is their accepted tactics off the Atlantic coast to attack only small, unarmed craft, and to submerge the moment they see any vessel coming which is swift and armed. One naval official in command of a certain antisubmarine vessel declared today that he had been cruising nearly a year and had yet to see his submarine.

The most elaborate precautions have been taken to prevent the submarines doing any very serious damage on this side. Officers of the navy feel confident that these measures will be successful and in the meantime they refuse to discuss the submarine situation for publication. They promise that developments will be made public as fast as is consistent with the safety of the country.

And it is emphasized that there will be no concealment of facts which the country should know.

SHIELDS OPPOSES LOWER AGE THAN 21 YEARS

However, He Believes the Ages Will Be Fixed Between 19 and 40 Years.

(Special to The News.)

Knoxville, Aug. 13.—Senator John K. Shields, before leaving Knoxville for Washington to be present when congress takes action on the new draft law, expressed the opinion that men from 19 to 40 years old will be made subject to military duty under the new draft law. Personally he thinks that the ages should be from 21 to 40 years.

Senator Shields says, however, that the larger army which can be created from men between 18 and 45 will have a splendid political effect in Germany, but he does not believe that number of men will be needed to defeat the Germans. "It is my understanding that about 15,000,000 men between the revised ages will be subject to duty. We need more than 5,000,000. We hope not that many."

Senator Shields thinks youths under 21 years old should not be placed in the service, because of the fact that many of them are completing their education, and should be left undisturbed. Many of the older men should be undisturbed because almost all men of the advanced ages are established in business, and to place them in an uncertain attitude in regard to being called into the army service may be detrimental to business. As a result, the industry and commerce of the country would be interfered with, to some extent at least.

"I do not know what other important legislation will come before congress when it meets," he says. "I understand, however, that Speaker Champ Clark says there will be sufficient to keep us at least until Nov. 1."

He is very much pleased with the fighting spirit which the American troops have displayed on the front in France. "Our boys have added greatly to the dash of the French, British and others of the allied armies," he says.

VIENNA ACCUSES AIRMEN OF BOMBARDING HOSPITALS

Vienna, Via London, Monday, Aug. 12.—The official statement from headquarters today says:

"Flying over Belgrade and the Seven Communists, Italian airplane squadrons attacked from low heights recognizable hospitals. Patients and other persons were killed."

—(Adv.)

AMERICANS WARNED THAT FIGHT IS NOW ONLY IN INITIAL STAGE

Part of United States So Far in Great Conflict is Viewed as Comparatively Small, and People Are Told to Be Prepared for Heavier Toll.

(By Caspar Whitney.)

(Copyright, 1918, by the Tribune Association.)

Paris, Aug. 12.—I have returned from a study of the German position on the plateau beyond the Vesle, where while organizing their retreating forces they stand stoutly contesting further ally progress.

America should realize that our part, like that of the British in the late fighting, was not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

AMERICANS WARNED THAT FIGHT IS NOW ONLY IN INITIAL STAGE

Part of United States So Far in Great Conflict is Viewed as Comparatively Small, and People Are Told to Be Prepared for Heavier Toll.

(By Caspar Whitney.)

(Copyright, 1918, by the Tribune Association.)

Paris, Aug. 12.—I have returned from a study of the German position on the plateau beyond the Vesle, where while organizing their retreating forces they stand stoutly contesting further ally progress.

America should realize that our part, like that of the British in the late fighting, was not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

The boche has plenty of remaining power and will use it when the change offers, but not quite so quickly after his hot-headed withdrawal, and the allies are unlikely to miss any opportunity of keeping him going while the going is good and his breath not fully recovered.

ments suggest. It is a strong position, but, while difficult and costly of access by frontal attack, its flanks are vulnerable and the entire area can be swept by ally artillery.

Thus time is required to organize an attack. The impression obtained on the front among the wise ones that the boche must fall back soon from his present position to formidably prepared defense on the Chemin-des-Dunes, not only on account of ally pressure and the deadly harassment concentrated on his front, but because his lines of communication in the rear are now open to gunfire and aeroplane attack.

The impending campaign to drive the boche back of the Aisne will be shared in more heavily by American troops, all of which will make for the increased effectiveness of the Americans and the added destruction of the boches.

PRUSSIANISM REAPING WHEREVER IT HAS SOWN

Germany, Bitterly Defeated in West, Menaced by Resistance in East.

London, Aug. 13.—Germany, in the bitterest hour of defeat in the west she has yet known, is menaced in the east not only by the advance of the allied expeditions, but by the perpetually growing movement of unorganized resistance to her occupation, says the Daily Telegraph in commenting on the situation in Russia.

There is not a part of Russia where German troops are stationed where the commanders have not all they can do to hold the people down by force of arms. The task, the newspaper adds, will soon call, if it has not already, for strong reinforcements apart from the question of meeting the allied expeditions.

The Telegraph continues: "If the enemy is in peril in the west, he is little better off in the east, and Prussianism is reaping wherever it has sown."

The removal of the German embassy to Pskov, says the Daily Chronicle, is an admission by the Germans of their intense unpopularity in Russia.

The Daily News says that the saddest fact of the political situation in Russia is the failure of the bolsheviks to provide a rallying point for the nation. It believes that the fall of Lenin and Trotsky would be the first step toward a solution of the problem for it would mean the emergence in Russia of forces disposed to stand for national self-assertion as against exploitation by Germany.

WHITFIELD PREMIUM LISTS FOR 1918 READY

(Special to The News.)

Dalton, Ga., Aug. 13.—The premium lists for the 1918 county fair have been printed and are now being distributed throughout this section. The lists show premiums considerably in excess of the aggregate amount offered in 1917.

The fair this year will be under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Judd, president, and will open Tuesday, October 15, to run through the week. Prospects for an excellent fair are bright. The organization is the oldest of its kind in the state, having held fifteen successful county fairs—one each year since the association was organized.

Do You Suffer With Stomach Trouble DISCOLAX

These genuine, improved colonic tablets give immediate relief. Don't make you sick or cause nausea. Only 25 cents a box. Ask your Druggist.

—(Adv.)

COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY PARALYZED IN MONTEVIDEO

Tramway Strike Develops Clashes With Soldiers and Police.

Montevideo, Uruguay, Monday, Aug. 12.—Commerce and industry here are virtually paralyzed today as the result of a general strike growing out of the tramway strike which has been in progress for several days and has developed into clashes between the workers and soldiers and the police. All business houses are closed, only a few cafes remaining open, and no newspapers are being printed. The street railway service is at a complete standstill.

Another death as a result of the disorders was reported today. In some instances the mounted police, in controlling mobs, charged with their sabres. There has been some destruction of property.

UNIVERSITY TENNESSEE MAY GET ON ARMY LIST

Washington, Aug. 13.—Thirty more universities and colleges were added yesterday to the list of institutions to qualify for army training camp units, outfitting them to uniforms and rifles and army instructors. The list includes University of Tennessee; Vanderbilt University and Emory University, Atlanta.

FRENCH ADD 2,000 MEN AND THIRTY GUNS TO CAPTURE

With the British Army in France, Monday, Aug. 12.—Reuters—In yesterday's fighting the French added 2,000 prisoners and more than thirty guns to their captures. There was stiff fighting today. Crown Prince Rupprecht having hurried up part of his reserves to try to check the retirement of the armies of Generals Von Der Marwitz and Hutier. The greatly increased weight of the enemy's artillery and machine gun fire was proof of the rapid strengthening of his reinforcements.

KNOXVILLE MAN IN BATTLE WITH GERMAN SUBMARINE

(Special to The News.)

Knoxville, Aug. 13.—Vallier Armstrong, of Knoxville, United States naval gunner on an American steamer, was in battle with a submarine 150 miles off Sandy Hook, according to information received by his father, Dr. W. H. Armstrong. The U-boat fired two torpedoes, both of which missed, the second one by only a few feet as the steamer's stern swung around. The submarine was observed about half a mile distant, and several shots fired at it from the after gun. Some believe a hit was scored.

WHITFIELD COMMISSIONERS CALLED TO MEET MONDAY

(Special to The News.)

Dalton, Ga., Aug. 13.—The Whitfield county jury commissioners, including W. H. C. Freeman, J. N. Caylor, J. F. Wilson, C. L. Hamilton, W. C. Moody and John Henton, will meet here next Monday morning for the purpose of revising the jury lists. Messrs. Hamilton, Moody and Henton were recently appointed by Judge Tarver to succeed Joseph Bogle, W. W. Cloway and N. A. Bradford, whose terms had expired.

EX-GOV. COLQUITT, OF TEXAS, DENIES ATTENDING MEETING

Had No Connection With Conference to Discuss Purchase of New York Newspaper.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 13.—O. B. Colquitt, former governor of Texas, yesterday denied he had ever attended a conference the purpose of which was to discuss the purchase of a New York newspaper which was to be an instrument of German propaganda. In a statement last night Deputy State's Attorney-General Becker, of New York, said information had been obtained that a conference had been held, and that Mr. Colquitt, Dr. Bernard Dernberg, George Sylvester Viereck and Bernard H. Ridder had attended.

Colquitt said he went to New York in January, 1915, on other business, and while there had discussed the purchase of a New York newspaper.

MILLS & LUPTON SUPPLY CO.
1146 Market Street
Mill, Mine, Railroad, Powerhouse Electrical Equipment
PHONES MAIN 115, 608, 1475

